WHAT WARRING NATIONS CLAIM IN THEIR OFFICIAL STATEMENTS

PARIS, March 13 (via London) .-The official communication issued this afternoon says:

"In the bend of the Yser the Belgian army has concentrated, and increased the results obtained by it on Thursday.

"The British troops continue to progress. They crossed the Brook of Layes, which runs parallel to the road from Neuve Chapelle to Fleuvaix. At the end of the day they reached a road known as the highway to hell,' which runs from the northwest to the southwest toward Aubers, and to the suburbs of that place. To the southwest of Eitere they carried several groups of houses, which were being strongly prepared for defensive purposes, The total number of prisoners cap tured during the day was 1,000. The Germans lost several machine guns. To the left and to the right of the British army French troops supported them with many heavy artillery and machine guns and infantry ment was issued to-day: "There have been no special collisions anywhere along the front. On the left bank of the Niemen and on the roads leading to Grodno only engagements of local character have occurred. North of Simno we routed a small German detachment with our cavalry, and took some prisoners and two guns.

"In the vicinity of Kopciewe, hostile columns suddenly found themselves under the fire of our artillery, and suffered serious losses. After having repulsed the enemy in the sectors of the wood nearest Augustowo, our troops concentrated in the region of Lepsk.

"On the right bank of the Narew and Bobrs there has been no change. The artillery at Ossowetz has continued to operate successfully against the siege batteries. An attempt by the Germans to assume the offensive on Friday along the River Orzye resulted in no gain of ground. In fact, the enemy was compelled to cede us some small villages and small sections of the Several members voting against the system yesterday expressed the opinion informally that such a system may work well in other States, particularly in the Western States, but they did not think the law would be a good thing for Virginia. They contended that the system may be worked to advantage in States where real estate is divided into sections or "squares," but would be of no advantage in Virginia, where farms and other parcels of real estate are uncupal in area. Those favoring the bill said they could see no logic in the argument.

There can be responsibility for the accident lay.
